Message from FOL President, Grace Suh

Welcome to the new UMKC Friends of the Library. My name is Grace Suh and I am thrilled to introduce myself as the new president of the board, and to invite you along on the exciting journey we are planning in support of UMKC's libraries.

Last Spring, in consultation with the Dean of Libraries, Bonnie Postlethwaite, FOL's board of directors decided to make two significant changes to our organization, in light of our libraries' expanded and reimagined facilities and capabilities. The first is to move away from our annual dues-based membership structure. The second is to expand the board's focus beyond collection development to include community outreach and programming.
